Asian Criminological Society (ACS)

The Asian Criminological Society (ACS) is a professional association of scholars, practitioners, and students in the fields of criminology and criminal justice who are interested in Asia. Its inaugural conference was held in Macau in 2009. Since then its annual conferences have been held in various parts of Asia, including Chennai (2010), Taipei (2011), Seoul (2012), Mumbai (2013), and Osaka (2014). The ACS conference regularly attracts 300-600 participants.

The official journal of the ACS is the Asian Journal of Criminology, a peer-reviewed scholarly journal published by Springer. For manuscript submission, please check <http://link.springer.com/journal/11417>. To join the ACS, please do it online (<http://www.acs001.com/>) or email the ACS office (asiancriminologist@gmail.com) in Macau. As a paid member of the ACS, you will enjoy the discounted registration fee for the coming conference in Hong Kong.

Visiting Hong Kong

Hong Kong is one of Asia's world cities and is near to several major cities in South China such as Guangzhou and Shenzhen. The conference venue, City University of Hong Kong, and the hotels recommended for conference participants are all located at the center of Hong Kong. The conference will also offer visits to criminal justice institutions in Hong Kong.

Supporting local organizations of the conference include Correctional Services Department, Customs and Excise Department, Hong Kong Police Force, Department of Immigration, Society for the Aid and Rehabilitation of Drug Abusers, and Hong Kong Society for Rehabilitation and Crime Prevention.
